

Two Week Visit to the Cotswolds

The Cotswolds

Your two week visit in the Cotswolds

Cotswold Water Park – Delicious Local Produce – Towns and Villages – Cotswold Events

- Tour the many towns and villages on the Romantic Road
- Experience the many outdoor activities at the Cotswold Water Park
- Take part in Cotswolds events and workshops
- Enjoy the wildlife at Slimbridge Wetlands Centre or The Cotswold Wildlife Park

Two weeks in the Cotswolds gives you enough time to explore the area and enjoy the activities you like most. There is a wide selection of self catering cottages to choose from, giving you the opportunity to try some cooking with delicious selection of local produce. The best way to get your hands on local food is to stop by at one of the many farm shops or farmers markets. Daylesford Organic and Abbey Home Farm are both award winning farm shops in the Cotswolds, also offering farm tours for all the family.

The Cotswolds is an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, and with an extensive list of outdoor activities to participate in, it's perfect if you enjoy the great outdoors. Spend a day or two at the Cotswold Water Park where you can enjoy cycling, canoeing, and possibly try the more extreme high rope course. There is also the option of guided or self guided walks through the towns, villages and countryside – an excellent opportunity to appreciate the spectacular beauty on offer.

Two weeks in the Cotswolds is time enough to tour around the many towns and villages at your leisure, all offering something different. Visit Bibury or Lower Slaughter for the picturesque scenery, or Chipping Campden and Tetbury for the fascinating history. Stow on the Wold is probably the best spot in the Cotswolds for antique shopping and Bourton on the Water is known for its family attractions. Larger towns such as Cirencester, known as the capital of the Cotswolds, offer a whole day of shopping, museums and places to eat.

Use the Romantic Road route to find your way around all the best spots.

Events and activities are aplenty in the Cotswolds, we recommend researching what is happening during your stay, from art exhibitions, music festivals to food courses and children's activities.

The Cotswolds is packed full of attractions and gardens. Spend a day enjoying the wildlife at WWT Slimbridge or the Cotswold Wildlife Park. Gardens such as Painswick Rococo Garden and Bourton House Garden have an impressive display of beautiful plants to discover. Gloucester Cathedral and Blenheim Palace are some of the most magnificent attractions to see in the Cotswolds. Check out a full list of attractions on Cotswolds.com.
