

Notes from the self-catering sector meeting

Tuesday 6th July 2021

Key findings/comments from attendees:

- Looking really good for summer bookings and well into Autumn as well with some already fully booked.
- Enquiries are very high with higher conversions happening as announcements made so hoping yesterday's announcement will give another push
- Overseas bookings cancelled or postponed until 2022 but even where overseas bookings have been persuaded to cancel, the cottage has refilled within 24 hours
- Last minute cancellations due to self-isolating for Covid and hospital appointments starting to be seen.
- Guests happy to be outdoors away from their four walls and relaxed
- Staffing – cleaners are becoming hard to find with a bit of a wage battle going on
- Been able to look at refurbishment / enhancement such as electric charging points

Updates from Cotswolds Tourism

Google analytics for the Cotswolds.com website clearly demonstrate the effects of the pandemic: lockdowns indicated by huge drops in interest, the approaching end of each lockdown a renewed surge of interest. The first six months of 2021 show unique visitors down just over 7% on 2019 but this masks huge differences: January to February down 30% or more but the busiest June ever 58% up on 2019!

Within the overall numbers there are also huge differences between different sectors:

- Self-catering – up 90%
- Gardens – up 88%
- Food & drink – up 69%
- Camping/Glamping – up 50%
- Activities – up 41%
- Family fun – up 46%

- Hotels – up 14%
- Shopping – down 20%
- Historic houses – down 35%
- B&Bs – down 36%
- Tours – down 37%
- Museums – down 40%

We will look to do a solus newsletter on B&Bs at the end of the summer, so send an appealing image, website link and short piece of text to cotswoldstourism@cotswold.gov.uk

Membership currently free until September 2021 and currently looking at what happens then.

Keep up to date via our B2B social media channels: Twitter @cotstourismbiz; Facebook www.facebook.com/groups/851272778718986; Linked-in www.linkedin.com/company/cotswoldstourism

Number of resources now available for you to use – Training modules – short bite size videos to help you www.cotswolds.com/training Digital guides to highlight to visitors when booking along with our website www.cotswolds.com/partnership/digital-guides Printed versions of the Cotswolds browser now in stock and can be picked up from visitor information centres (phone first to check they have stock).

T-Stats & data Really good input from the BB sector to Tstats but self catering sector need more businesses entering data – please enter 0 for months closed and in notes state Covid restrictions. To sign up contact us at cotswoldstourism@cotswold.gov.uk or review www.cotswolds.com/tstats

We will shortly be sending out a survey link to help South West Tourism Research Company's work compiling our annual economic impact study. This data is used by LEPs, local authorities and businesses so your input is valuable.

Keep an eye on consumer sentiment with www.visitbritain.org/covid-19-consumer-sentiment-tracker and VisitEngland's business advice hub www.visitbritain.org/business-advice

Visit England are running a domestic campaign Escape the Everyday www.visitbritain.org/be-part-our-domestic-marketing-campaign-escape-everyday and we are running Escape to the Cotswolds. Funded by our successful bid to the DMO recovery marketing fund, this entirely digital campaign is linked to bookable experiences in the Cotswolds www.cotswolds.com/escape.

Being bookable on Cotswolds.com Our website is now fully connected to Visit England's TXGB platform & several other polling channels including Free to Book, Supercontrol & Eviivo. Several B&Bs now link up to TXGB to be bookable and we are starting to see bookings come through. For more information on TXGB www.txgb.co.uk/ & polling options or get in touch with Sally Graff